Marlene Ahrenholtz Achievement Award Nomination Form

Marlene was a mother, a mentor and a motivator. She was a trailblazer, who was courageous and strong, even during her battle with cancer.

Marlene Ahrenholtz guided, coached, and encouraged women throughout our community. She was a humble leader who saw the best in people and helped them to grow. Marlene was involved in many activities and groups, including the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, her church, and more. She was a strong role model for anyone she met. Marlene's leadership skills and professional achievements continue to serve as impeccable standards in the business arena.

Nominees should reflect the above qualities. Women living and working in Northeast Nebraska are eligible for nomination. Please fill out the following form with information about the nominee and how they follow Marlene's example.
